ITALIAN SAYINGS

Ho una fame da lupi (literally I'm hungry like a wolf): (oh oo-nah fah-meh dah loo-pih) - if you feel especially hungry, say this as a little joke about how hungry you are.

E' una buona forchetta (literally he is a good fork): (éh oo-na boo-oh-na fork-eh-ttah) - an expression used to describe a gourmet, someone who enjoys eating well and appreciates high quality dishes.

Sono pieno come un uovo (literally I'm full like an egg): (soh-no pee-eh-no ko-meh un oo-oh-voh) - say this when you've just finished eating and you want no more food, as an excuse for not eating anymore. It actually means that you are full, literally, "as full as an egg".

La lista dei vini (The wine menu) : (la lee-sta dei vee-nih) - Ask this when you want to see the wine list

Cameriere, il conto per favore (waiter, the bil please): (ka-meh-ree-eh-reh il kon-toh per fa-voh-reh) - After a good meal you can use this expression to call the waiter and ask for the bill.
